

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, February 2. 1723.

London, February 2.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Lisbon, December 31.

ON the 27th Instant, the Feast of St. John the Evangelist, whose Name the King bears, his Majesty received the usual Compliments of the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and principal Officers of the Court; at Night there was a fine Concert of Vocal and Instrumental Musick performed at the Palace, composed by the Abbé Scarlatti. The 18th being the Feast of our Lady of Attalaya, instituted for returning Thanks to God on Occasion of this City's being delivered from the Plague and Famine in the Reign of King Don Manuel, the same was celebrated by the King's Order in the Church of the Friars of the Order of Christ. The Fleet from the Bay of All Saints came last Week into this River, together with the Ship St. Pillies, from the East Indies; by which Advice are received, that the Viceroy Francis-Joseph de Sampaio and Mello having made a League with the English, and Princes of the neighbouring Countries that are possessed by the Portuguese, to force the Prince of Angara to pay to the Crown of Portugal the usual Tribute which of late he refused, and besieged the Fort of Calabo belonging to that Prince: That the Viceroy's Army being reinforced with 10000 Men, brought by his Ally Prince Sau Raja, he had obliged the Prince of Angara to sue for a Peace, and to sign a Treaty advantageous to the Portuguese Crown. Those Letters add, that the Arabs have made no Inroads since the three great Overthrows they sustained two Years ago by the Count d'Ericeyra, late Viceroy in the East-Indies, and that the King of Persia, before the late Rebellion of Part of his Subjects, had caused his first Minister's Eyes to be put out, and two of his Generals to be put to Death, because they affected to conceal the Victories gained by the Portuguese and their Allies, of which he had no Account but from the Consul of the Country. The Royal Academy of History has elected the Marquis de Valence to succeed to the Place vacant in the Academy by the Death of the Count de Montefanto, and to continue the History of Portugal which the other had begun; his Election was approved and confirmed by the King, according to the Statutes, before it was made publick. On the 23d, the Academy held, in the King's Presence, the first Assembly of their Third Year since its Establishment. The Marquis d'Alegrette made a fine Speech on Occasion of the Renewal of the Royal Censors; after which, Senhor Joseph d'Acanha Brochado spoke an Elogium upon the late Count de Montefanto, as is customary after the Decesse of the Members of the Academy.

Brussels, Jan. 30. On the 27th Instant, an Accommodation of a Dispute between the Marquis de Prié, and the Prince and Princess de Hornes, and their Father in Law, relating to an Omission of the first Visit in Point of Ceremony at the Princess de Hornes's Marriage, was made by the Interposition of Prince Don Emanuel of Portugal, and the Dutchess Dowager of Aremberg, to the Satisfaction of all the Parties, and they were entertained together the same Night at a Supper and a Ball at the Prince de la Tour and Tassis's House. It is now said, that Prince Don Emanuel of Portugal's Departure from hence is fixt to the 12th of next Month; that he takes his Route through Namur for Nancy, and from thence to Champagne to avoid the bad Roads of Luxemburg. The famous Marquisse Bianchi was conducted the 27th Instant from the publick Jail of Debtors, where he was at first committed, to that for Criminals, called the Steen-Port: People discourse variously concerning his Fate; he has yet some Friends, who give out he has wherewithall to make Restitution. Three Jews are come hither from London, who charge him with having given them false Bills for above 10,000 l. Sterling in Payment for Jewels and other Effects they sold to him. The Patent for the Ostend East-India Company is not yet made Publick, though it is believed to be arrived here a Week ago. It is said, that the Undertakers begin to be very much discouraged from pursuing their Design, by the Apprehensions they are in from the Dutch Company in the East Indies, as Independent in those Parts from the Republick, and that several rich Merchants in Holland and other Countries having withdrawn their Subscriptions on the like Suspensions, it is thought that those of Ghent and Antwerp will not be able to find the necessary Funds without foreign Purloes to carry on the Trade, and that by these Incidents the Project may fail.

Paris, Feb. 6. On the 2d Instant the Duke of Charost, the King's Governour, was taken ill of a violent Fit of the Cholick; but by the help of bleeding and other Remedies he is now out of Danger. The Parliament was extraordinarily assembled upon receiving of a Lettre de Cachet from the Government, requiring a Copy of the Speech they design to make to the King the Day his Majesty goes to the Parliament to have the Declaration of his Majority registred. The Count de Bavaria is returned from Munich, and preparing to go to Madrid. All the Parts of Italy are under terrible Alarms upon Account of the great Preparations of the Turks. The Abbé Ragueneau died suddenly the 1st Instant; 'twas he that wrote the History of Cromwell, that also of the Prince du Tuscane, which have not yet been made publick, and several other curious Works. It is believed the Actions will not be delivered to the Proprietors till the 15th of next Month; for which Reason, they are fallen to 1370 Livres; the Liquidations are at 20 Livres 10 Sols.

Verfailles, Feb. 5. The 2d Instant being the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin, the King, wearing the Great Collar of the Order of the Holy Ghost, attended by the Duke of Orleans, Duke of Chartres, Duke of Bourbon, the Count de Charolois, Prince of Conti, preceded by the Knights, Commanders, and Officers of the Order, went to Chapel at the Castle, and assisted at the Ceremony of Blessing the Candles, and afterwards at the Procession, and at High Mass celebrated pontifically by the Bishop of Metz, Prelate Commander of the Order of the Holy Ghost. In the Afternoon his Majesty heard a Sermon preached by Father Dardene, and afterwards Vespers sung to Musick. On the 3d, Sig. Morosini, Ordinary Am-ballad from Venice, had a private Audience of the King, in which he paid Compliments of Congratulation to his Majesty on the Death of the late Dutchess of Orleans: He had a private Audience afterwards of the same Subject of the Duke of Orleans.
